

Interpol issues fresh red notice against LeT chief Hafiz Saeed

Neeraj Chauhan
letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: Interpol, acting on India's request, has issued a fresh red notice against Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) chief Hafiz Muhammad Saeed for spearheading anti-India activities from across the border, people familiar with the matter said.

This is the second red notice since 2009 against the United Nations-designated terrorist, currently lodged in Lahore's Kot Lakhpat prison. The first global arrest warrant against Saeed was issued on August 28, 2009 in connection with the 26/11 Mumbai terror attacks, in which 166 people, including 25 foreigners, were killed and 235 injured.

One of the people cited above said that the National Investigation Agency (NIA) "sent a request to the Interpol last month seeking a fresh red notice against Hafiz Saeed listing fresh charges against him".

A red notice is a request to law enforcement worldwide to locate and provisionally arrest a person pending extradition, surrender, or similar legal action.

Hafiz Muhammad Saeed

A first-of-its-kind drone attack at Indian Air Force base in Jammu on June 27 was carried out by Saeed's organisation, according to a preliminary probe by NIA.

A car-bomb that exploded outside Hafiz Saeed's residence in Lahore's Johar town on June 23, and Pakistan has claimed that India's spy agency, Research and Analysis Wing (R&AW) was behind the attack, a charge strongly denied by Indian officials who have termed the allegation "motivated".

The 71-year-old founder of LeT and its frontal organisation, Jamat-ud-Dawa, is wanted in India for multiple attacks including December 22, 2000 Red Fort attack, December 2001 Parliament attack, ambush on Border Security Force (BSF) convoy at Udhampur on August 5, 2015, and blasts in Delhi, Mumbai and other cities. He is also wanted in a case on terror funding in Jammu & Kashmir, in which several separatist leaders were arrested by NIA in 2017-18. Both NIA and the Enforcement Directorate (ED), have named Saeed as the mastermind in J&K terror funding probe where they believe he, Hizbul Mujahideen chief Syed Salahuddin, separatist leaders, several businessmen in Kashmir and officials in the Pakistan high commission, were funding terrorist attacks and stone-pelters as part of a well-planned criminal conspiracy of securing secession of the state of Jammu & Kashmir from India.

Despite India's repeated requests and the United States announcing a reward of $10 million on him, Pakistan is yet to take concrete action against Saeed and he continues to carry out his activities.

Although he is lodged in a Lahore jail, Indian counter-terrorism officials say this is just an "eye-wash" by Pakistan as part of its review by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF), which has kept in the "grey-list" since June 2018 for failing to meet the agency's action plan on cracking down on terror-financing.

He was arrested by Pakistani authorities on multiple occasions since 2000 for terror activities, only to be released after few days. Saeed has a close relationship with Pakistan's military and spy agency ISI, who often speak in his favour. He is also closely associated with Taliban leadership, which is reflected in the fact that he established an office of LeT in Quetta, Pakistan in June 2006 to assist Taliban in their operations in Afghanistan, according to the UN Security Council notice against him.

"In 2005, Saeed determined where graduates of a LeT camp in Pakistan should be sent to fight, and personally organized the infiltration of LeT militants into Iraq during a trip to Saudi Arabia. In 2006, Saeed oversaw the management of a terrorist camp, including funding of the camp. Saeed also arranged for a LeT operative to be sent to Europe as LeT's European fundraising coordinator," according to the United Nations Security Council.

HIZB COMMANDER KILLED DAY AFTER CAPTURE IN J&K

SRINAGAR: A top Hizbul Mujahideen (HM) commander, Mehrajuddin Halwai, was killed in an encounter with security forces in north Kashmir's Kupwara district on Wednesday, hours after he was captured, police said. Halwai was killed in an exchange of fire when he was taken to locate weapons at a hideout and he allegedly picked up his rifle and started firing at security forces, said officials familiar with the matter.

"One of the oldest and top commanders of HM terror outfit, Mehrajuddin Halwai, got neutralised in the Handwara encounter. He was involved in several terror crimes. A big success," said Vijay Kumar, inspector general of police (Kashmir).

Police said Halwai, a contemporary of Hizbul commander Burhan Wani who was killed in 2016, was apprehended at a checkpoint at Watyan Handwara on July 6, after he allegedly behaved suspiciously, police said, adding a grenade was also recovered from his possession.

Police said they have recovered arms and ammunition, including one AK-47 and four magazines, from the hideout. They added Halwai was a category A++ militant.

This is the third such encounter since June 3.

Judge recuses himself, imposes ₹5L fine on CM

Joydeep Thakur

letters@hindustantimes.com

KOLKATA: Calcutta high court judge justice Kausik Chanda on Wednesday recused himself from hearing West Bengal chief minister Mamata Banerjee's petition challenging her assembly elections defeat in Nandigram, but imposed a ₹5 lakh fine on the Trinamool Congress (TMC) chief for the manner in which the recusal was sought.

Justice Chanda also stressed that he did not think there was any conflict of interest if he had continued hearing the case.

"The past association of a judge with a political party by itself cannot form apprehension of bias," the judge, said as he stepped away from Banerjee's petition, which will be placed before another bench.

In her petition, Banerjee alleged voting irregularities in her loss by 1,956 votes to her protégé-turned-adversary Sivendu Adhikari from Nandigram. The TMC had demanded a recount shortly after the results were announced in favour of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) candidate but the request was turned down by the Election Commission. Her case was slated to be heard by a single judge bench, justice Chanda.

Mamata Banerjee

Banerjee and her party asked for transferring the petition to another judge citing "apprehension of bias" since justice Chanda had, before his elevation to the bench in 2019, represented the BJP and its leaders in court cases and was seen in photographs sharing a dais with BJP leaders including state unit chief Dilip Ghosh.

Justice Chanda was upset that Banerjee did not raise their objections when he first heard the case on June 18 but her party leaders put out messages on social media, setting off what he described as a "media trial" with hundreds of tweets demanding that he recuse from the case.

"Such calculative, psychological, and offensive attempts to seek recusal need to be firmly repulsed and a cost of ₹5 lakh is imposed upon the petitioner," justice Chanda said in his order on Wednesday. The money will be used to fight Covid-19.

Banerjee declined to comment on the verdict. "This is a sub-judice matter. I will not comment. The lawyers will decide whatever decisions need to be taken," she said.

TMC leaders hinted the party might approach the Supreme Court over the ₹5 lakh fine.

"We have full faith in the judiciary and justice Chanda. But we had some reservations in this matter because some pictures and old facts have come to the forefront. As far as the decision to move the SC, the party will take a decision soon," said Kunal Ghosh, TMC spokesperson.

The BJP said it will not comment on a court order or a judge's decision. "We have complete faith in the judiciary. Some political parties may not have faith," said Jay Prakash Majumdar, BJP's state vice president.

In his order, justice Chanda emphasised that he did not agree with senior advocate Abhishek Manu Singhvi, who appeared for Banerjee, that there was a conflict of interest since "I have a long, close, personal, professional, pecuniary and ideological relationship" with a political party. "It is preposterous to suggest that a judge having a past association with a political party as a lawyer should not receive a case involving the said political party or any of its members," the order added.

ED arrests Khadse's son-in-law in land deal case

vijaykumar.yadav@htlive.com

MUMBAI: The Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Wednesday arrested Girish Chaudhary, son-in-law of Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) leader Eknath Khadse, in connection with alleged money laundering linked to a land deal in Pune's Bhosari.

Khadse joined the party last year after exiting the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP). Officials said that Chaudhary was arrested since he did not cooperate during a 12-hour interrogation on Tuesday. He was produced before a special Prevention of Money Laundering Act court on Wednesday that sent him to ED's custody till July 12. ED has booked Chaudhary and Khadse, a former revenue minister of the state, and is probing alleged money laundering to the tune of ₹61.25 crore in the land deal.

The case pertains to the purchase of a plot on April 28, 2016 in Bhosari near Pune by Khadse's family for ₹3.75 crore while the market rate was ₹31 crore. The plot's ownership was contentious. The industries department acquired it in 1971, but the final award of the plot was not made, and the owner was not compensated for it.

The complainant, Hemant Gawande, alleged that Khadse defrauded the exchequer in the deal. ED's case is based on the complaint filed by Anti-Corruption Bureau, or ACB, against Khadse and his family members in 2017. The ACB closed the case in 2018 after submitting a report to the concerned court that cleared the minister of any wrongdoing. However, ED continued its investigation.

Khadse has maintained that investigations, including those by ACB and Income Tax department, found no irregularities. He claimed that the central agency reopened the probe against him for leaving the BJP.

According to the ED's case, Khadse and his family fraudulently purchased the said land, despite having knowledge that it was reserved for Maharashtra Industrial Development Corporation (MIDC), so that when the MIDC acquired it, they could claim the compensation of more than double the market rate.

ED said Khadse mobilised revenue officials to acquire the said land by MIDC so that his family could get compensation.

SRINAGAR: On the second day of its visit to Jammu & Kashmir, the delimitation commission on Wednesday met more than three dozen delegations of different political parties, civil society groups and government officials from south Kashmir's four districts — Kulgam, Pulwama, Shopian and Anantnag. In the evening, the commission also met delegations from central and north Kashmir districts — Baramulla, Kupwara, Budgam, Ganderbal and Bandipore.

After meeting 17 delegations in Srinagar on Tuesday, the commission members travelled to Pahalgal in Anantnag district on Wednesday and held meetings with delegations of several mainstream political parties — including the National Conference, Congress, Jammu and Kashmir Apni Party, People's Conference, Communist Party of India (Marxist) and Bharatiya Janata Party — and groups from various districts of the Union territory. The mainstream parties were represented by their district presidents and senior leaders. They presented their suggestions and apprehensions about the delimitation process, people aware of the developments said.

"We presented them our point of view about delimitation process," said Congress Pulwama district president Umar Jan.

National Conference leader Altaf Kaloo, who headed the delegation, said they presented the memorandum to the commission. "We briefed them about the stand of our party vis a vis delimitation," Kaloo added.

While the majority of the parties suggested that population should be the main criteria for reorganisation of constituencies, the People's Conference and the CPI(M) demanded that the census figures of 2011 should be the benchmark for the exercise.

Former Supreme Court judge Ranjana Prakash Desai heads the commission that was constituted in March 2020 to redraw the Lok Sabha and assembly constituencies of J&K, Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, and Nagaland.

On Thursday, the panel will head to the Jammu division.
